Centennial Year Begins with Guild Worship Service

The 2011-2012 program year marks our chapter's 100th anniversary! Originally chartered on October 23, 1911 as the Missouri Chapter, we became the Saint Louis Chapter in February, 1955. It is appropriate that we celebrate the kick-off of this centennial year with a worship service.

Dr. Kimberly B. Long, Assistant Professor of Worship and Coordinator of Worship Resources for Congregations, Columbia Theological Seminary, Decatur, Georgia will be our guest worship leader and speaker. Kimberly Bracken Long is Assistant Professor of Worship at Columbia Theological Seminary in Decatur, Georgia. A Minister of Word and Sacrament of the Presbyterian Church (USA), she has served congregations in Pennsylvania and New Jersey. She is the author of The Worshipping Body: The Art of Leading Worship (Westminster/John Knox Press, 2009), and The Eucharistic Theology of the American Holy Fairs (Westminster/John Knox Press, 2011), as well as numerous articles and sermons. A speaker, preacher, worship leader, and teacher at worship conferences around the United States, Long also served as editor of the quarterly journal, Call to Worship: Liturgy, Music, Preaching, and the Arts from 2005-2011. She holds degrees in music from the College of Wooster (Ohio) and the University of Maryland, the M.Div. from Princeton Theological Seminary, and the Ph.D.

in Liturgical Studies from Drew University. Dr. Long described how she made the transition from music to theology:

As for the transition from vocal performance to theology - I guess you could say I was yanked away. I loved my musical studies and thought I could make a decent career out of singing and teaching in some big city. My teachers were encouraging me to do a DMA and go into university teaching. Then halfway through my pregnancy with my second child, something happened to me. I was reading a rather dry book for a Presbyterian church's new members' class when without warning, I heard a voice that said (not very poetically, but unmistakably), "I want you to go to seminary." I found myself on my knees, weeping. The next day I chalked it up to hormones and brushed it all aside. But I didn't forget about it, and I enrolled in seminary when my sons were 1 and 3. Within a few weeks I knew I was being called to the ministry. After ten years as a parish minister, I felt a similar call to further study and the urge to somehow be part of the renewal of worship in the Presbyterian church. I have been blessed to be able to do that, and to be part of wider ecumenical movements as well. In the end, I see that God has woven all the strands of my life together. My musical background is invaluable as I teach about worship, and a singer's training has some things in common with a preacher's formation as well.

Celebrate!

Welcome to the 2011-2012 season during which we will celebrate the centennial year of our chapter. There have been many achievements by the chapter and by its members. Since 1986 our chapter has presented twenty-four Blewett Awards to outstanding contributors to musical life. Additionally, Honor Awards have been made to recognize deserving candidates.

Among the world-class recitalists our chapter has sponsored for recitals in the Greater St. Louis area have been Gillian Weir and Peter Hurford.

The St. Louis Chapter has hosted conventions, competitions, and two successful Pipe Organ Encounters.

Most importantly our chapter has sought to educate and support local organists, choir directors, and music enthusiasts.

Because of these endeavors we can be proud of our rich history. Please join us in this year's centennial celebration as we continue to write our history. The best is yet to come!

Celebrate!

NUNC DIMITTIS

St. Louis musician and theologian, Robert Bergt, whose work and reputation are known around the world, died Tuesday, July 26, 2011 at the age of 81. He was music director and conductor of the American Kantorei and artist-in-residence at Concordia Seminary, St. Louis. He is survived by his wife of 57 years, Joan, an accomplished musician; four children, Jonathan, Philip (Iris), Marsha (Peter), and Joel (Mieko); and six grandchildren.

Rev. Bergt founded the American Kantorei in 1968, the first group of its kind in the United States. The Kantorei is a highly skilled choral and instrumental group that has performed in a variety of settings in St. Louis and beyond. Bergt served Lutheran congregations in Illinois and Missouri and was music director, conductor, and instructor at Concordia Seminary and numerous colleges and Universities.

A memorial concert is being planned for September 25 in the Chapel of St. Timothy and St. Titus on the campus of Concordia Seminary. The family has asked that memorial gifts be given to Concordia Seminary for the future of Bach at the Sem.

We are looking for a partner in ministry who will provide music to enhance the worship experience and direct a small choir. For a complete job description or more information, call 314-429-7464. Resumes may be sent to the church address.

About Powder . . .

The great contralto Ernestine Schumann-Heink was Czech by birth and German by musical training but American by cultural adoption; she must have been one of the few public figures to have sons fighting on both sides in World War I. Schumann-Heink was hefty, loveable, and a superb artist—but in this vignette, passed from buff to buff over the years, she is simply a woman with a German accent in that great American invention, the drugstore.

“I’d like some powder, please,”
she told the clerk.

“Mennen’s?”

“No. Vimmen’s.”

“And would you like it scented?”

“No, I vill take it vit me.”
