YEAR-AT-A-GLANCE, SLAGO-STYLE!

As we begin the new Program Year for the Saint Louis Chapter AGO, I am very pleased to highlight the fine program of events that outgoing Sub-Dean Stephen Eros and his Program Committee have planned. Featured are international artists, past National Guild officers, local luminaries, 3 new organs, a landmark Kimball, and beloved perennials of the local organ scene.

Our program year will begin Sunday afternoon, 28 September at 5:00 with Choral Evensong at Christ Church Cathedral featuring the Cathedral Choir under the direction of Canon Precentor William "Pat" Partridge. The prelude, played on the lovely Aeolian-Skinner by members of our chapter, will begin at 4:30. The Cathedral is located at 1210 Locust Street in Downtown Saint Louis. A festive reception will follow sponsored by the Cathedral and our Chapter. (For The Details, see Page 11.)

Monday evening, 6 October at 7:30, organist Hans Leitner will lead a master class on the new Martin Ott pipe organ at Peace Lutheran Church, 737 Barracksvue Road. Herr Leitner, who will play on the Series at the Cathedral Basilica at 2:30 Sunday afternoon, 5 October, will bring insight into works of the Baroque and German Romantic eras. Those interested in participating should contact the Sub-Dean. Dinner will be at 6:30.

Thomas Troeger of Yale University and past National Chaplain of the Guild will be featured speaker on the Pfautch Lecture series at the Second Presbyterian Church in the Central West End, on Monday and Tuesday evenings, 20 and 21 October, at 7:00. The Reverend Doctor Troeger's talks will focus on "Song that Blesses Earth." There will be no admission charge.

Friday evening, 7 November at 7:30, a Fund Raiser for next summer's Regional Convention hosted in Saint Louis will take place at the Scottish Rite Temple in the Central West End. Andy Peters will accompany the silent film comedy "Hot Water" starring Harold Lloyd. Andy will be putting the mighty and seldom experienced Kimball through its paces. This will prove to be a really exciting event! The Chapter will co-sponsor hors d'oeuvres and a silent auction beginning at 6:30. Tickets are $20 per person; those 16 years of age and younger will be admitted free of charge. Please spread the word about this special opportunity to experience the Rite's beautiful auditorium, stunning Kimball pipe organ, a terrific movie, exceptional musical talent, and great company!

Todd Wilson will teach a Master Class at Christ Church Cathedral Monday evening, 9 February at 7:30. He will explore French and English repertoire with members and friends of the Chapter. His program at the Cathedral Basilica Sunday afternoon 8 February at 2:30 will be a wonderful opportunity to witness his prowess at handling a large instrument in a rich acoustical atmosphere with ease and artistry. Dinner for the Monday evening event will be at 6:30.

Dr. A. Dennis Sparger, the 2014 recipient of our Chapter's Avis Blewett Award, is well known to all of us as a local leader in the interpretation of the choral works of Johann Sebastian Bach. Saturday, 14 March at 10:00 at, we will enjoy Dr. Sparger's presentation focusing on the Passions of Bach at Centenary Methodist Church. Breakfast will be at 9:00.

Another of our local musical luminaries, Dr. Stephen Mager, will present a program entitled "Taking the Mystery out of Composition" at Bethel Lutheran Church in Clayton on Monday evening, 20 April at 7:30. For all who dream of composing, arranging and perhaps publishing music, this will be an informative evening! Dinner will be at 6:30.

Monday evening, 4 May at 7:30, our Chapter will co-sponsor a recital by the duo-organist team of Elizabeth and Raymond Chenault on the splendid Casavant at First Presbyterian Church of Kirkwood. Dinner will be served at 6.30.

Our Chapter's Annual Dinner and Meeting will be held at the Historic Trinity Lutheran Church in Soulard. Monday evening, 18 May at 6:30. A Members' Recital will follow dinner on the church's new Schantz pipe organ. All are welcome to share their talents.

Finally, as a Prelude to the Regional Convention, Sunday evening 21 June, the Chapter will co-sponsor a recital by Christopher Houlihan at Historic Trinity Lutheran Church, Soulard. This will, undoubtedly, be a spectacular conclusion to our Program Year as well as a stunning pre-convention event!

Mark Scholtz, Sub-Dean

From the Dean . . .

Coming together is a beginning; keeping together is progress; working together is success.
--Henry Ford

It is my hope that the season of summer provided you with opportunities to change your pace and take in some long-anticipated experiences. Conventions and conferences, travel, and some moments of relaxation form us and prepare us to share our gifts more fully during the other three seasons. Now is the time for us to come together for some new beginnings and opportunities to make lives even sweeter through the beauty of our craft.

The chapter program for 2014-2015 promises to enrich us with prayerful worship, excellent recitals and master classes, and pertinent lectures. Thanks go to our Program Committee for making the contacts, setting the dates, and putting things into place for us. Quality presenters and recitalists from near and far will be featured -- I am looking forward to taking in what these "celebrities" have to offer. And I am looking forward to deepening my connections with chapter members who join in attending. Another fine year of AGO Chapter events will be crowned with our Chapter hosting the AGO Regional Convention, June 22-24, 2015. Like the Program Committee, the 2015 Convention Committee is to be thanked for the scheduling and detail work already accomplished, and for the wonderful program in place for that Convention. Local ensembles, instruments, and spaces are sure to be appreciated by those in attendance.

We really will "hit the ground running" this fall. Evensong at Christ Church Cathedral is a three-part event: arrive at 4:30 p.m. to enjoy the recital, Evensong is at 5:00 p.m., and a reception follows. The following week, Hans Leitner will fly in from Munich, Germany to play a recital at the Cathedral Basilica and to provide a Master Class at Peace Lutheran Church in South County. On October 20 and 21, hymn-writer Thomas Troeger will speak at Second Presbyterian Church. Truly, this is a good time to live in the St. Louis area!

It is a joy to consider all that we will be sharing in the months ahead. I have always contended that the American Guild of Organists is among the finest sources of continuing education for church organists. Our membership makes such programs possible. Renewing our membership has been happening with the ONCARD system. If that has caused any bumps in the road for you, please persevere as we become accustomed to this new procedure. Thanks for your patience.

J.S. Bach was not the only musician to make use of Soli Deo Gloria; Dr. Bill Wade also made use of that fine closing. I close by expressing my gratitude for his leadership these past two years, and for working so tirelessly to make our Chapter inclusive and professional, friendly and worthwhile.

Dawn Riske, CAGO

NEWSWORTHY:

AGO Certifications

Brent Johnson is (among other things) the Examination Coordinator for our Chapter. This time of year is a super time to consider whether this might be the year for you to work on an AGO Certification. Details are available in the July issue of The American Organist. Plus, you can access the information at agohq.org/certification. Working with a colleague or group to prepare can be a helpful strategy, as well. Our Chapter sponsored examinations for 2/3 of Region 6's newly certified members, yeah! Congrats to these four, who have gained the Service Playing Certification: Lucas Fletcher, James Threlkeld, Jane Southard, and Audrey Thomas. Here is a note from Jane, who gained certification in the Spring:

"I would like to promote the AGO Certification program. It was an excellent learning experience for me, and I encourage others to do it. Bill Wade arranged for several of us to gather on Saturday mornings last year to explore the various levels and requirements. This was a very supportive group. Playing for them was a helpful step in the preparation process. I would especially like to acknowledge Andy Peters. I took weekly lessons with Andy from August to April, and he generously shared his knowledge with me in my selecting, learning and polishing the required pieces. Andy's coaching and my commitment resulted in an excellent score and a great feeling of accomplishment and a big boost in my confidence. I also appreciated Brent Johnson's professional assistance in recording the exam. This is an excellent program, and I hope others will take advantage of it."

The chapter's executive board approved a used music sale with all proceeds going to the convention. The sale will be held at the chapter's annual banquet in May, 2015. Andy Peters is collecting music ahead of that time. If you have organ music or CDs to donate, you can:

- Drop it off at Second Presbyterian Church in the Central West End (attention: Andy Peters).
- Drop it off at Andy's house in the Shaw neighborhood.
- Hand it to a convention steering committee member next time you attend a chapter meeting.

We are always appreciative of your generous financial support. You can contribute online at www.ago2015.org/support or send a check to:

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES—2015 AGO REGIONAL CONVENTION: YOUR HELP NEEDED!

The programs are planned, recitalists and speakers engaged, venues selected – the basics of the 2015 Regional Convention are falling into place. Yes, indeed, STL AGO is getting ready to host a big event! And the key word is “host.” Turning those plans into a smooth-running event will take a coordinated effort of all Chapter members.

Would you be willing to usher at concerts, drive out-of-town recitalists to practice sessions, staff the hospitality table, set up rooms for Workshops—all the behind-the-scenes details that will make the convention a success? Watch these pages for a convention jobs list—there is a “host” of opportunities to volunteer.
