Ramblings from the Dean . . .

Yesterday was Memorial Day and tomorrow is Labor Day. How is it that I’ve managed to fritter away three months of summer? And, more pressing, am I ready for the return of my dedicated band of singers? (Gosh, didn’t they just go on summer holiday last week?) In short: yes, the new choral season is reasonably-well in hand. The “Choir Menu” is planned through Christmas, hymns are selected, cantors and instrumentalists have their assignments, and yours truly is considering organ repertoire to round-out the musical offerings. As you might have surmised, I fully-embrace my Teutonic roots, preferring organization to “winging-it”, and am not terribly appreciative of surprises. It is fortunate for me that the folk with whom I work take this penchant for tidiness all in stride with a gentle, but telling, eye-roll and compassionate smile. Ah, the life of the Parish Musician.

Our Chapter’s program year, too, is about to get under way. Kudos to Burnell Hackman and his team for constructing a season featuring a number of our very own gifted members. An important note: the cost of meals at our meetings has been raised to $15 per person. Your Executive Committee is optimistic that the membership will still view this as one of the better meal-deals in town.

Dawn Riske and the January Jubilee Committee have crafted what promises to be an awesome event. Please pay close attention for details in this and upcoming issues of The Opus.

Since May, our Chapter has grown with the addition of seven new members:

Steven Monrotus, David Cason, Douglas Gilliland, Shirley Boucher, Stephen McMullen, Kirk Meyer (dual), and Harry Studt, The Rev. Zachary T. Edgar

Welcome! We all look forward to meeting you very soon.

Finally, a word of encouragement from The Book of Common Prayer for each of us about to embark on a new season of liturgical music-making by leading hymnody from an organ bench, directing singers to their fullest potential, raising a voice as a singer in the Choir, or joining from the pew:

0 God, whom saints and angels delight to worship in heaven: Be ever present with your servants who seek through art and music to perfect the praises offered by your people on earth; and grant to them even now glimpses of your beauty, and make them worthy at length to behold it unveiled for evermore; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Cheers,

Mark R. Scholtz, Dean

Monday, May 21 - Annual Dinner Meeting
Venue - Webster Groves Christian Church (Lisa Cripe, host)
6:30 PM — Dinner
7:30 PM — Meeting with Clay Christiansen as guest speaker. He will discuss his work with the tabernacle choir and the organs at Temple Square, Avis Blewett Award and Installation of Officers.

As you can see we are offering many great events this season, your attendance is the only thing missing!!

Here’s to another great year!!!

Burnell L. Hackman, Sub-dean
NEWS YOU CAN USE

THE BOARD—IN A NUTSHELL

The Board met at Mark and David's lovely home in Alton on August 11.

Mark reported for Burnell that the program for 2017-2018 is set-up and ready to begin. NPM is now co-sponsoring the October 23rd venue; so, our program cost will be reduced to $300.00.

Brent Johnson has expressed his wish to be replaced as Registrar by the end of the year. He reported that the OnCard system keeps track of most membership information, and there is very little work to do, other than reporting at meetings.

Board Elections for 2018 – This election is for Dean, Sub-Dean, and the class of 2021—a total of 5 people. The nominating committee should begin in November, present the slate in January, hold the election in February and present the elected slate to the Executive Board by March meeting. The nominating committee should consist of only 1 member from the current board and 2 members at large. Please consider serving the chapter on this important committee!

Our chapter was previously asked to sponsor a Quimby Competition; but because we were hosting the Regional convention, we were not able to do it at the time, but said that we could sponsor the competition in the future. It would be in 2019 and the deadline is approaching. The decision is based on finding someone willing to chair the event.

Upcoming Conventions: Lisa mentioned that The Hymn Society of America will hold its convention locally the 3rd week of July, 2018, and The Handbell Musicians convention will be local in 2019.

OPEN POSITIONS

Sunday October 15 - 2:30 pm - Cathedral Basilica of St. Louis Diane Bish, organist & Angela Brown, soprano. Diane Bish is the most visible and influential classical organist performing today. Concert and recording artist, composer, conductor, and international television personality, Diane Bish displays her dazzling virtuosity and unique showmanship to international acclaim. Her organ performances are hailed as “stunning, virtuoso, fiery, and astonishing.” She launched the “Joy of Music” international television series in 1982 as a platform for awareness and appreciation of “the king of instruments.” Episodes feature famous cathedrals, concert halls, churches and organs. This tremendous outreach to the general public on behalf of the organ and Diane Bish’s longevity as a leading recitalist distinguish her in the world of music. Angela Brown personifies the ideal soprano: sheer vocal power; luxurious finesse; and shimmering, high pianissimos. With a charming personality larger than life, she unites opera, pops, and gospel in one sensational voice. A featured artist on the two-time Grammy Award® winning recording “Ask Your Mama,” Angela’s international reputation continues to grow. Her highly successful Metropolitan Opera debut in the title role of Aida captured instant attention from international print and broadcast media and catapulted Angela onto the world’s prestigious opera and symphonic stages.

Sunday, October 22—4:00 pm—Second Presbyterian Church Concert—Todd Wilson. One of today’s finest concert organists, Todd Wilson serves as head of the Organ Department at The Cleveland Institute of Music and as Director of Music at Trinity Episcopal Cathedral in Cleveland, Ohio. He has performed with symphony orchestras including the Cleveland Orchestra, Los Angeles Philharmonic, and the Nashville Symphony. Mr. Wilson plays Bach, Hancock, Widor, Reubke’s thrilling “Sonata on the 94th Psalm,” and an improvisation on the church’s 60-rank 1965 Schantz Organ. This concert is generously presented in memory of Alice and Ben Knight. Information: (314) 367-0366.

The St. Louis Chapter of the AGO extends condolences to the family of Priscilla "Pris" McDonnell who passed away July 25, 2017 at the age of 94. Mrs. McDonnell was a founding member of the board of the Opera Theatre of St. Louis and a longtime soloist and choir member at Ladue Chapel Presbyterian Church.

She was the child of an avid music lover, and she sang a recital of her father's songs at Carnegie Hall. She studied at Juilliard and at the University of New Mexico.

In 1946 she married Sanford Noyes "Sandy" McDonnell, who became the chairman and CEO of McDonnell Douglas.

Mrs. McDonnell was the recipient of many honors, including the Missouri Historical Society's Thomas Jefferson Award, an honorary degree from UMSL, the Variety Club’s Woman of the Year, and Cathedral Concerts’ Great Music Award.

Mrs. McDonnell leaves her son, Randy McDonnell of Frontenac, a daughter, Robbin McDonnell MacVittie of Newberry, New Jersey, a grandson and a great grandson.

The St. Louis AGO Chapter remembers "Pris" narrating an unforgettable performance of "The True Story of Cinderella," a rollicking, hilarious treatment of the familiar story at our May 2016 meeting at Grace Episcopal Church.
If Organists Wrote the Wedding Columns . . ."

On Saturday the 3rd of August, at well after the stated time of 2:00 p.m., Ann Jones and Bob Smith were married at Our Lady of Sorry Acoustics. The groom wore a suit and the bride wore a dress. The organist’s shoes, in tasteful black, were by Organmaster. The organ is a rebuild of a Harvey Piston Shotz VI of a 2m Whisk which contains pipe work from the original Ox tracker that existed before the tragic fire. The Harmonic Flute is "to-die-for" and the Cor Anglais is like "buttah," but the combination action is unreliable.

There were attendants all over the place, but the organist still only got three quarters of the way through the "Prince of Denmark’s March," with no repeats, ending on the dominant. The 8’ Tuba stop was the central feature of the processional; this could be seen on the smiling faces of everyone in attendance.

After a few minutes of some speaking by some clergy-type, the organist played the first four phrases of the Schubert "Ave Maria" in E-flat on the Gemshorn 8’ while the couple did something.

Later, the bride’s sister’s best friend’s adopted niece breathily sang "The Wedding Song" from the balcony, without interludes (even though the organist left them in). This didn’t matter because she used the microphone, obliterating the subtle chiff of the Gedeckt 8’.

The recessional was the Mendelssohn, played on a satisfying plenum. It was played in ABABA form to fit the length of the movement. The guests talked throughout the postlude, but the organist added stops as the noise level increased, masterfully maneuvering each draw knob, coupler and reversible—without missing a single note of the Widor! This noble feat did not go unnoticed by the congregation, as attested to by audible sighs of relief that were heard as soon as the music stopped.

The bride and groom went to college somewhere, but did not take any music appreciation course. After their honeymoon they plan to blend in to suburbia where the highlight of each year will undoubtedly be the replay of their wedding video and reliving each musical moment.
