SNOWMAGGEDON, INDEED!

Snowmageddon has come and gone, but the work of the Guild goes on! We are in final preparations for our February Flourish! The event is scheduled for February 9th, 2019, with registration beginning at 8:00 AM, and will last around 7 hours, with various sessions and workshops and reading sessions from which to choose. Dolan Bayless and Dana Self will be hosting the event at Kirkwood United Methodist Church, 201 West Adams in Kirkwood. For more details, visit <http://www.agostlouis.org/februaryflourish>.

In addition to the Flourish, we will have a regular program in February, hosted by Suzanne Manelli at St. Johns Lutheran Church, 3738 Morganford Road in south St. Louis city. Dr. Nicole Aldrich will be presenting a program on Working with Older Voices on February 25th. Dr. Aldrich is music director and organist at University United Methodist Church in University City, MO. This program would help a lot of us who have aging choirs and help us learn how to better use those voices.

This is a last call for anyone who would like to play the organ for our Members' Recital on March 25th. Please contact me right away at jawhite1967@gmail.com if you would be willing to play a short program of fifteen minutes, and the theme is Music for Lent and Easter. This is an opportunity to play the wonderful organ at Third Baptist Church, and the program will be on the radio at the Sunday night organ program hosted by Bill Stein and Mark Scholz.

Both the February 25th and March 25th programs will have dinners at 6:30pm, which require RSVP in advance as soon as possible. A reminder that these dinners, which are always excellent, are $15, and reservations may be made by phoning or texting Kathleen Bolduan at 314-853-5011 or emailing her at kathleen.bolduan@gmail.com. Each meal is preceded by the Executive meeting at 5:30pm, and the program will begin at 7:30 pm.

On a final note, the closing banquet in May will be held at Peace Lutheran Church. More information will be sent in the next edition of the OPUS, but I will say that you might want to brush up on your organ trivia!

St. Louis Chapter to Host Young Organists' Competition

The Executive Board has agreed to host a Chapter-level competition in preparation for the North Central Regional Convention in Milwaukee this summer. The RCYO is a competition for organists age 22 or younger. They compete at the chapter level, after which the winners of the chapter competitions compete at the Regional Conventions. The Regional winners then compete at the National Convention the following summer. Many of you will remember that we hosted the Regional Competition in St. Louis as part of the Convention in 2015.

We are excited to hold this competition and hope many of you will attend and support the 2 competitors that we will host. The competition will take place on:

Saturday, March 23, 2019 from 10:00 am to 12:00 pm at the First Presbyterian Church of Kirkwood.

First Presbyterian is located at 100 E. Adams Avenue. Travis Evans is the competition coordinator, and can answer any questions you may have. His email is tevans@kirkwoodpres.org. We look forward to seeing many of you there!

From the Dean . . .

Dear fellow musicians, Happy February—the month of Love!

As a chapter we loved the Epiphany Party hosted by Dr. Steven Ball. Over forty members and friends attended the event.

As individual musicians we loved and gained so much knowledge at our Fantastic February Flourish. We thank Dawn Riske and her hard-working committee for supplying us with such an educational event!

We are looking forward to our February 24 session on working with adult voices. We love our older choir members! It is good to find ways of helping them make the most music they can.

Looking ahead, I would like to share some events that will be happening in the future:

Recently we renewed the contract with the Radio Arts Foundation and Organ Media for another year of the King of Instruments. A powerful program which highlights great organ music once a week. This is a major financial undertaking of the chapter. I ask you or your institution to consider giving toward this endeavor. Become a “Friend of the King of Instruments” by donating today. It’s easy! You can pledge with your credit card at <http://www.agostlouis.org/friends-of-koi>. You may also mail a check to our treasurer Mike Kaberline at P. O. Box 140067, Saint Louis, Missouri 63114-0067. Be sure to indicate KOI in the memo.

On March 23, our chapter will host a local competition for the National Young Artists Competition. The winner of our local competition will advance to play at our regional convention in Milwaukee this summer. Travis Evans is heading up our local event.

We are gearing up for our third Pipe Organ Encounter this summer. Please visit our website for full details. We are looking toward our members and members of heighboring chapters to help make this very important week possible. Donations to the Encounter can be made online at: <http://www.agostlouis.org/poe2019/> Any amount you can give will help make this an enjoyable week for those in attendance.

There is much happening for lovers of organs and organ music. I encourage you to become more involved with our chapter!

I hope to see you at our February events!

Burnell Hackman, Dean

ANNOUNCING THE 2019 EXECUTIVE BOARD CANDIDATES:

Look for an email notice informing you of on-line voting in late February or early March to elect the 2019 AGO

Executive Board. According to our Operating Procedures:

“Additional nominations may be made by petition if each petition is signed by five (5) Chapter members in good standing and submitted to the Chapter Secretary within thirty (30 days of the announcement of the slate to the Chapter membership.” Petitions should be sent to Cathy Cassy, Secretary at cmcass@yahoo.com or sent to:

2191 Shirlene Drive; Granite City, IL 62040.

CANDIDATE BIOGRAPHIES FOR 2019:

SECRETARY – Rick Burk

Rick has served as Minister of Music at Westminster Presbyterian Church in St. Louis for the past nine years. He has been a member of the American Guild of Organists for over thirty-five years during which time he has been a member of six different chapters including here in St. Louis. Throughout his membership in the AGO Rick has served on Executive Boards and Professional Concerns Committees in various chapters. In addition to the American Guild of Organists, Rick also maintains membership in the Association of Lutheran Church Musicians, the Presbyterian Association of Musicians, the Hymn Society in the United States and Canada, the Handbell Musicians of America and the Handbell Association of Greater St. Louis where he currently serves as treasurer.

CLASS OF 2022 CANDIDATES:

Steven Ball: has recently been named as Director of Sacred Music at The Oratory of St. Francis de Sales in St. Louis, Missouri. The Oratory is famous for a unique and varied choral repertoire spanning several centuries and performed by numerous ensembles. The liturgies are conducted exclusively in Latin using the Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite, the universal form of the Roman Catholic Liturgy before the changes which followed the Second Vatican Council. As such it provides a unique cultural and musical setting in which the music of some of the greatest composers for sacred choral and organ music can be heard in their original context.

Wes Kassulke: Completed his masters degree in education from Webster University. Wes is also currently teaching elementary music at Long Elementary School. In addition to teaching in the Lindbergh School District for the past 27 years, he has taught summer opera camp for Opera Theatre St. Louis for 10 years. Wes worked with the St. Louis Symphony to develop the Adopt-a-School Program, and worked in an adopted school for many years. A summer highlight for Wes occurred at the national AGO Convention in Kansas City. Even though the endowment for the St. Cecilia Organ Concerts at national AGO conventions was started in 2010 at the Washington DC National Convention by Marianne Webb, it wasn't until this summer's convention that the fund came to fruition to fulfill her complete dream of sponsoring not only the St. Cecilia Organ Concert, but also a full reception. Sharing memories of Marianne Webb with Anthony Thurman at the reception and seeing her dream become realized was a real blessing! Wes is a former member of the St. Louis AGO Board, and served as Hospitality Committee Chair for 2015 St. Louis Regional Convention. Wes is a former member of the St. Louis AGO board, and 2015 Regional Convention Hospitality Chairman.

JD Brooks: JD Brooks enjoys his 40 plus years of creating music in the church and non-for-profit world. JD is currently the Music Director of the Ethical Society where he coordinates musicians through the Music Outreach Program and performs for Special events. He has worked as an Associate Conductor for the St. Louis Children's Choir, Sheldon Chorale, and the University Chorus of UMSL. His educational back ground is varied with degrees in Music Education, Keyboard Studies, Kodaly Education, and Conducting. JD is committed to promoting outreach to the community through music.
