Jennifer Pascual—At Peace Lutheran And at the Cathedral Basilica

For our November event, we have a very exciting opportunity to work with a very prestigious person in the Organ community! On Monday, November 5 – Dr. Jennifer Pascual, Organist at St. Patrick's in New York will discuss a topic of interest.

Dr. Pascual was appointed Director of Music at St. Patrick's Cathedral in New York City in 2003. She is the first woman to hold this position, one of the most prestigious sacred music appointments in the United States.

I am looking for 3 or 4 people willing to be part of a master class. Do you have something you're working on that you'd like to have a free critique or lesson? Maybe you'd just like to get some expert advice on registration or technique? Here's your chance! Contact Subdean Jeff White at jawhite1967@gmail.com to volunteer. I have had opportunity to do this with Dr. Faythe Freese, and it was a great experience! I hope you will give it a try...you won't regret it.

Please note that the location has changed; the concert on Sunday will be at the Cathedral Basilica, and the dinner meeting will be at Peace Lutheran. Dinner will be at 6:30pm followed by the 7:30 pm program.

For these and all programs with meals, don't forget to RSVP your dinner reservation as soon as possible by contacting Cathy Bolduan by phone or text 314-853-5011 or email kathleen.bolduan@gmail.com.

Regards,

Jeff White, Sub-Dean

Dear fellow musicians,

We are a BUSY chapter!!!!

I thank the many volunteers who make this chapter run so smoothly. Our Executive Committee works well together in conducting the business of the chapter. The many others in leadership roles make all our lives easier. The long hours people spend in compiling our newsletter, keeping our member's roster up-to-date, making sure we have a delicious meal at our meetings, interesting programs, an easy to use website and the list goes on and on. All this would not be possible without our dedicated group of volunteers.

We had several new members attend at our September meeting. Two I spoke to were highly complementary of our chapter. They were made to feel welcome at our meeting and enjoyed the meal which was served. One stated "I never got to know members of our last chapter as there were no fellowship activities" The other (from a major Church) said he never felt welcome at meetings. They both enjoyed our time together and will be back!!!! What an excellent endorsement for our chapter!

Our chapter will be busy during the next few months as we have three major events to execute, and we need YOUR help to pull this all off!

#1 – Our February Flourish is on February 9, 2019. Dawn Riske and her committee is planning another all-day event of education for all our members from the least experienced to the most experienced. Following the success of our January Jubilee our February Flourish is supported by the National AGO. We are the only chapter in the nation hosting a January/February event this year!! Please contact Dawn if you have any questions or would like to help!!

#2 – Our Chapter will also host a chapter level Young Organist Competition on Saturday, March 23 at Kirkwood Presbyterian Church. Travis Evans will serve as Competition Coordinator. The winner of our competition will go on to participate at the Regional Convention in Milwaukee this summer. We are one of only two chapters sponsoring the local level competition this year.

#3 – Our third major event is a Pipe Organ Encounter for students ages 13 – 18. We have selected July 28 – August 2, 2018. Students will be housed at Fontbonne University. Various churches will be used for instruction and evening outings will be planned. Dr. Horst Buchholtz is our POE Director. We are only one of 4 POEs being held this summer in addition to one POE Advanced and one POE Technical. We'll need your financial and physical support to make our third POE another success!

Our Chapter is blessed to sponsor a local radio program titled "The King of Instruments". The King of Instruments is a one-hour show airing Sunday evenings at 6:00 pm on the Radio Arts Foundation in St. Louis. It is a joint production of the St. Louis AGO and the Organ Media Foundation. Hear it in the St. Louis region on 107.3 FM, 96.3 HD2, or you can listen online from anywhere in the world at rafstl.org. It cost $150.00 per episode to air the program. This is a major expense for our chapter. I'm ask you as individuals and your institutions to consider sponsoring an episode. Full sponsorships is $150.00 per episode. Sponsors receive recognition within the broadcast episodes and on the St. Louis AGO website. Sponsorship of specific episodes is a possibility, although sponsorship assignments are first come, first served. To check availability of and request specific dates, please email koi@agostlouis.org. You may make you gift online at: <http://www.agostlouis.org/koi/>

If you haven't visited our web site lately (<http://www.agostlouis.org>) I invite you to do so. It is a wealth of information about our chapter and has a great listing of local musical events – for more than just the organ!

The Handbell Musicians of America will host their Annual Directors' Seminar in St. Louis from July 17 – 21. The Hyatt downtown will be the host hotel. For more information visit <http://seminar.handbellmusicians.org/>

I know of two national events in St. Louis next summer that involve our chapter members in leadership roles. The Association of Disciple Musicians will meet from July 7-12, 2019 -- Webster Groves Christian Church, Webster Groves, Missouri. Conference workshops will include Small Choir Music, Handbell Techniques, Worship Planning, Choral Conducting, Organ Improv, Leadership & Experience w/Small Choirs, Creative Worship Experiences and Choir Music Reading Sessions. Mack Wilberg, Janette Fishell and Joel Raney will be among the clinicians for the conference. I believe Janette Fishell will be presenting a recital at Kirkwood Presbyterian Church during the convention! Visit www.adm-doc.org for more information.

We have a very alive and vital chapter. If you haven't attended a program lately. I invite you to come and join us! You might possibly meet some new friends that share your love of church music!!!!

May you have a wonderful Thanksgiving and may your Advent and Christmas be blessed with outstanding music and a healthy body!!

See you at the next meeting!!

The Editor's Mailbox! This is a first, and the Editor is delighted!

"... Please share with the chapter ... how much Jane Fontana and I enjoyed the 10/15/18 event. We met so many fine people and made great "musical" connections. Dr. Buchholz was not only knowledgeable in his presentation but also entertaining. It was a joy to participate and to meet him.

I am also grateful to receive the newsletter. It gives me ideas for our Chapter and keeps me connected.

Gratefully,

Jane Ott, Dean, Southern Illinois Chapter of the AGO
