We're Gonna Crawl In Illinois to Kick Off The AGO Season!

I hope that you have had a refreshing summer and are beginning the fall with renewed energy and creativity. Our program committee has planned some fantastic events for our chapter this year (see schedule in this OPUS issue), and we hope that they will provide opportunities for you to grow musically, to connect with organ-ists from our area and beyond, and help you to become more a passionate advocate for the organ in your congregation and community.

The first event of the year is an organ crawl in Illinois on Saturday, September 23. We'll begin at St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church in Granite City, head over to Alton, and finally wend our way up the Great River Road to hear several instruments at Principia College. In addition to the great organs, this is a great opportunity to enjoy the beautiful scenery and the early fall weather. And after the crawl, you can enjoy lunch at Principia College, "Just Desserts" in Elsah, or one of many restaurants along the Great River Road or back in Alton.

You're strongly encouraged to carpool with friends and colleagues. Driving directions to all the locations are included here and a map of the entire route will be distributed before we depart from St. Elizabeth's that morning.

I look forward to seeing you on the 23rd!

—Paul Vasile

Organ Crawl Schedule — Sept. 23

9:00 - 9:45 a.m.

Casavant (2006, 3/55)

11:30 a.m. – Demonstration of Martin Ott in the Chapel

Noon – Carillon demonstration

12:15 p.m. – Demonstration of Casavant in the auditorium by Dr. Near, followed by open console

Directions to Principia College from First Presbyterian Church: South on Alby Street and turn right onto Broadway Street, which becomes the Great River Road. About 10 miles up the Great River Road, turn off into the village of Elsah. At the first stop sign in the village, turn right and go up the hill to the college. The gate attendant will give instructions to parking and the Chapel.

Here We Go: An Exciting New Year for St. Louis AGO

A couple of weeks back, I stopped by the music store and, with uncharacteristic foresight for August, looked through the Christmas pieces. I bought an arrangement of "Joy to the World" which opens with 16th notes in the pedal – a simple recurring pattern for alternate toes which looked easy until I tried sight-reading it at the tempo marking. I soon realized how little I have practiced this summer.

It's hard to concentrate when the temperature in the sanctuary is over 80 degrees and even warmer at the organ console, an occupational condition which I'm sure I share with many of you. In July and August, my repertoire is strictly "summer music": pieces which I can register and rehearse in the hour between the end of the Sunday service and the end of the air conditioning.

September will bring a return of cooler weather as well as the return of monthly Guild meetings. The program committee has been hard at work since May, planning a varied series of lectures and recital events. Many thanks to Sub-Dean Paul Vasile and his committee – Cathy Bolduan, Ted Cronbaugh, Henry Evans, David Erwin, Suzanne Manelli, and Jeff Nall – for their time and energy and great ideas!

I'm very excited about the September meeting. It's been several years since the Guild sponsored an organ crawl, and this trip to Illinois includes venues which have not previously hosted Chapter events. Please take advantage of the opportunity to see and hear four outstanding instruments, two of which were built by members of the St. Louis AGO Chapter.

The organ crawl will also be the first program which I attend as Chapter Dean. One of my priorities for the coming season is to meet as many of you as possible, and to connect faces with the names in the directory list. Looking forward to seeing you Saturday, Sept. 23.

—Martha Shaffer, Dean

OPUS Publication Guidelines

General News

You are invited to submit material to the editor for publication consideration. If you took part in educational tours or denominational workshops over the summer, heard recitals abroad or at major summer concert venues in the U.S., please consider writing a paragraph or two and sharing your experiences with your fellow members. Material should be e-mailed to OPUS Editor Wayne King at opusstlago@aol.com. The deadline is the FIRST day of every meeting month.

"On the Concert Horizon..."

To submit information for the events calendar column of the OPUS, please send information according to the following format:
day / date / time / venue / address / program / admission and/or contact information

Announcements with incomplete information cannot be published; lengthy press releases can not be accommodated. For time-sensitive items, please allow at least two months' lead time. We can control when the OPUS is published, but cannot control the actual delivery date by the Post Office. Sometimes it gets delivered in just a few days; other times, it takes more than a week after printing to go through the mail. And not everyone gets the issue on the same day. Send notices via e-mail to opusstlago@aol.com.

A special note: There are no plans to produce a separate "events" calendar as has been done previously. Therefore, it is especially important to e-mail your concert notices if you want publicity in OPUS. Again...receiving your notices two months in advance is an important requirement.

2006-2007 Programs

St. Louis AGO Chapter

Here's our meeting schedule for the year. Get out your calendars right now and mark these dates. As usual, most of these meetings will be preceded by dinner and an opportunity for fellowship. Details of each meeting, and driving directions, will be provided in each monthly issue of OPUS. See Page 1 for information about the September meeting.

Monday, October 23

(a week earlier than usual meeting date)

Recital with Scott Montgomery

Venue: St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Ladue

Scott Montgomery, winner of the 2006 AGO National Performance Competition at the convention in Chicago, is one of the "rising stars" in the American organ scene. Local students who attended our June POE will be invited to attend.

Monday, November 27

Psalm Festival

Venue: 2nd Baptist Church, Clayton

An evening to celebrate the book of Psalms and the central role that this songbook plays in Jewish and Christian worship.

December

No meeting. No OPUS published.

Monday, January 29

Organist/Clergy dialogue with AGO Chaplain Gregory Norton

Venue: Ladue Chapel Presbyterian Church, Ladue

Members are invited to bring clergy and colleagues to hear AGO National Chaplain Gregory Norton. He is the minister of music at Pasadena Presbyterian Church, Pasadena, Calif., and is both an organist/choir director and ordained minister. He brings refreshing balance and insight into the pastoral role of church musicians.

Monday, February 19

(a week earlier than usual meeting date)

Workshop with Paul Jacobs

Venue: Cathedral Basilica, St. Louis City

Paul Jacobs has re-invigorated the American organ scene with his once-in-a-generation gifts as a performer. He is also creating new interest for the organ in the wider musical world, which has recognized him as a musician of rare stature. He will present a workshop on Olivier Messiaen.

Monday, March 26

Master Class with Christopher Young

Venue: Parkway United Church of Christ, Des Peres

Dr. Christopher Young is professor of organ at Indiana University's Jacobs School of Music. Guild members will be invited to play in a master class setting.

Monday, April 30

Global Hymnody with C. Michael Hawn

Venue: University United Methodist Church, University City

Dr. Hawn teaches at Perkins Seminary in Dallas, Texas, and is an expert in the area of global hymnody and enlivening congregational song. He will introduce us to new hymns and service music from around the world and give creative, thoughtful ways of incorporating them into a congregation's worship life.

Monday, May 21

Annual Banquet and Awards Ceremony

Venue: TBD

Congratulations to Past Dean Stephen Mager

Stephen Mager spent the month of July in Bethesda, Md., as composer-in-residence and orchestra conductor for a production of his opera, Dream of the Pacific. Sponsored by the Washington National Opera's Center for Education and Training, Dream of the Pacific received four full performances as part of WNO's first presentation of an opera intended for family viewing and young audiences. Selected scenes were also performed on the Millennium Stage of the Kennedy Center.

Mr. Mager worked with a chorus of 20 young people ages 10 to 18, drawn from the Opera Institute for Young Singers and Opera Camp for Kids. Four adults from the WNO Young Artist Program sang the lead roles. The opera received favorable reviews in the Washington Post, and Mr. Mager had the opportunity to meet with WNO's General Director, Placido Domingo.

In the short time between the end of the Pipe Organ Encounter and his trip to Maryland, Stephen auditioned for graduate study at Indiana University in Bloomington. He will begin study this fall in the doctoral program in conducting. We express many thanks to Stephen for successfully guiding the Chapter as Dean for the past two years, congratulate him on his success with the opera, and wish him well in his new academic career.

Chapter Personnel Changes

Cindy Gee, organist at Memorial Presbyterian Church, has been appointed to succeed Luella Foster as Chapter secretary. Luella has resigned due to work commitments. We wish her well in her new position. Jeff White has been appointed to serve the remaining year of Tim Allen's term on the Executive Committee. Jeff is the organist/choir master at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church in South County.

Certification? Certainly!

Perhaps this is the year you are ready to take a certification examination for the Guild. Whether you prepare for Service Playing or Choir Master, for Colleague, Associate, or Fellow, you will improve your own skills and strengthen the gifts you share with your faith community. Specific requirements are listed in the July 2006 issue of The American Organist. If you have an interest or would like more information, contact the chapter exam coordinator, Dawn Hoy at St. Joan of Arc Church (314-832-2838); e-mail riskehoy@aol.com.

ChicAGO2006 National Convention Report

ChicAGO 2006 was a trio sonata of activity from the Ken Cowan pre-convention concert and improvisation semi-finals to the final concert at the Moody Memorial Church. My family and I attended Sunday morning services at St. James Church, home of Leo Sowerby, followed by the Young Artist Competition in Organ Performance Sunday afternoon. In the evening, we walked to Orchestra Hall for a program of 20th c. compositions by Wachter, Ran, Proulx, Miller, and Escaich which overwhelmed our eardrums. Back at the hotel, Hospitality and Exhibits welcomed us until midnight.

On Monday at 7 a.m., 30 buses left for Valparaiso U. for opening worship. National Chaplain Rev. Gregory Norton, Rev. Peter Gomes, and President Fred Swann spoke at the annual meeting at Rockefeller Memorial Chapel (U. Chicago). Mrs. Pleasant Rowland of the American Girl Company received the Guild Award for donating an organ and promoting organ concerts in her home civic center. Evening activities were a choice of July 4th fireworks at the Navy Pier or incredible improvisation “fireworks” at St. James. Then we walked to Fourth Presbyterian for a quiet a capella Compline with the Schola Antiqua.

Tuesday opened with worship at 8:30 am at Holy Name Cathedral, where Rene Zajner sang in the choir. We heard magnificent recitals by Janette Fischell with Tango, for the Feet (Livre d'orgue – Ferke) and by Stefan Engels, who performed the most beautiful piece of the week, Capriccio for Organ and Violin (2005) by Naji Hakim. The Composers' Forum featured Naji Hakim, Richard Proulx, Augusta Reed Thomas, and Sharon Willis. St. Mary of the Angels RC was the evening site of A Song to David by David Albright with choir, soloists, challenging organ, narrators and audience. The day closed with late evening prayer at Fourth Presbyterian with Schola Cantorum.

Wednesday we traveled to Evanston to hear Sophie-Veronique Cauchefer-Choplin or Thomas Murray and Wolfgang Seifen. The class on improvisation covered 18th c. German, 20th c. French, and 21st c. American styles. At noon, I walked down the street to

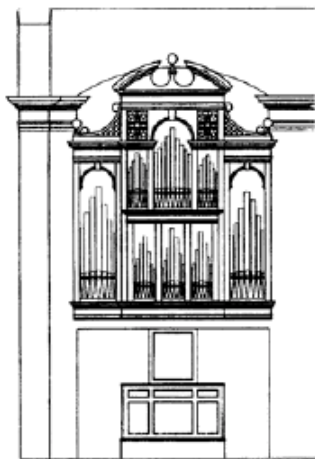

Cathedral of the Holy Name

Trinity Methodist (Chicago Temple) for a refreshing service with the Canadian group “Sanctuary”: organ, harp, and guitar. At 4, St. Mary's RC church held sung Vespers. In the evening, we heard the Bach Week Festival Orchestra and Cathedral Singers.

On Thursday at 7 a.m., buses took us to Wheaton College and Grace UMC to hear the organ duo Alan and Jeanine Morrison, and Glen Ellyn Children's Chorus with the House of Hope Presbyterian Choir performing commissioned pieces by Paulus and Ferko. Afternoon workshops were highlighted by French improvisation techniques with the incredible Sophie Choplin, and Hungarian and Canadian composers, including Gardonyi. The closing concert was at the 4,000 seat Moody Memorial Church with new commissioned works by Hailstork, Willis, and Hampton. The ChicAGO closing reception at the hotel featured Paul Bisaccia and Gershwin piano.
